2.6) Please list up to three things that you liked about this course.

- Dr. Holshauser was simply fantastic. He clarified difficult concepts very well and was very fair.
- Fair Tests, Plenty of Homework and Quizzes
- I thought that the homework and quizzes were good indicators for the tests. The time period to finish the homework is very nice because it allows time to work on other classes too.
- It's calculus, I love all of it.
- Nothing
- The professor was nice and extremely fair. If you cheated or tried to walk over him, he would handle accordingly. He also clarified difficult concepts very well.
- The structure
Amount of graded work
The ways of explanations
- The teacher, the material, the quizzes
- the instructor was very clear when explaining all of the different concepts, constant examples, homework

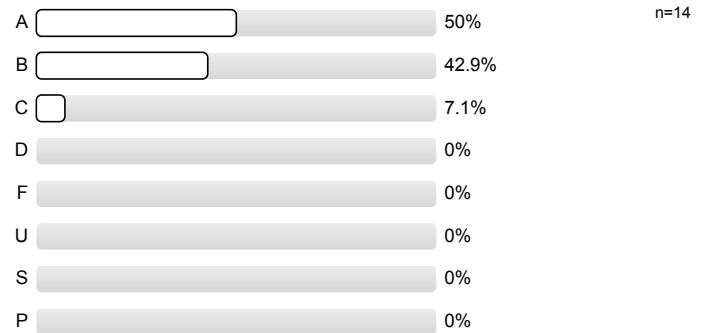

2.7) Please list up to three things that you would change about this course.

- If anything should change, it should be the textbook. Too many problems, but none that reflect the material learned which kinda screwed alot of us over and even our homework grades because we couldn't complete them. GET NEW TEXTBOOKS
- Perhaps add bonus points for trying some of the theorems at the end of the class.

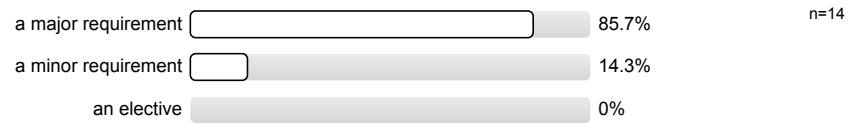

- Some of the homework was slightly too difficult.
- The homework from the book was sometimes not effective for practice, but this is an issue with the book itself, not the course.
- Treat all his students the same no difference between them, and be fair with your students.
- put an air conditioner in the room
- the homework
